Scott Tingley

A native of Florida and Veteran in the US Air Force, Scott started his racquet career with tennis, ranking nationally for the first time at age 14. After finding pickleball in 2012, Scott was soon playing with national champions. He has played in numerous tournaments, earning over 50 medals with a current Senior Pickleball World ranking of 21 in Mixed and 22 in Doubles. Scott has been a private pickleball coach in the Southwest area and has been conducting group clinics around the country. He also serves as an IPTPA Certifier for Instructors.

Bob White

Bob White is a professional pickleball player sponsored by Engage and ranked in the top 25 in the world for senior pro players. Being a passionate player and experienced instructor allows Bob to bring a well-rounded knowledge to the court whether he's competing or instructing. His love for people and the game of pickleball merge together in a perfect unison, creating a high energy, easily understandable clinic or specialized one-on-one lesson to meet your individualized goals.

Bob has been immersed in the world of sports since a youth. Throughout the years, he has remained a competitive athlete in several sports, served as an impartial referee, organized, and ran sports camps, and served as coach and instructor. The last five years, however, he has centralized on competing and coaching in one of the fastest growing sports in the US, Pickleball. His love for the game was immediate and all-in. His spark quickly grew into a fire, and he spread it through the world of teaching. Bob instructs a wide variety of players in vast settings, including clinics, camps, groups and individuals.

Bob's fire for competition still burns brightly as he continues to play in men's doubles and mixed doubles. Bob has won or finished in top three in many tournaments over the last five years and continues to compete in the Senior Pro division. Bob's fuel to compete is contagious and transferred through his lessons which allows his students and players to ignite their game and reach that desired playing goal.

Mindy Yoder
